The Guest House by Rumi

This being human is a guest house.
Every morning a new arrival.

A joy, a depression, a meanness,
some momentary awareness comes
as an unexpected visitor.

Welcome and entertain them all!
Even if they're a crowd of sorrows,
who violently sweep your house
empty of its furniture,
still treat each guest honorably.
He may be clearing you out
for some new delight.

The dark thought, the shame, the malice,
meet them at the door laughing,
and invite them in.

Be grateful for whoever comes,
because each has been sent
as a guide from beyond.

— Jalaluddin Rumi, translation by Coleman
Barks (The Essential Rumi)

This poem resonates with me at this season because there is much darkness around and the feelings (guests) enter our lives in so many ways. Allow yourself to sit with those feelings and move through them so you can be free to enjoy the joy of the season no matter where you are on the journey.

Peace,
Lori

Consistory has agreed that individuals can make their own decision as to the wearing of masks during church services. Offering will be collected at the door and hymnals will be used. We will be serving pew communion. If you find yourself testing positive for COVID, please contact the church office so we can alert others who may have been in contact with you during time spent at church. Thank you.

Our Annual Congregation Meeting will be held on Sunday, December 4th immediately following worship. At this time, we will discuss the budget, (copy attached) elect new Consistory members and consider any other business that may come before the congregation. The Cemetery Association Annual Meeting will be held that same day.

We are always looking for more help in the Sunday School. This is an important ministry of our church. If you are feeling called to help out, please let Pastor Lori know and we will tell you more of the specifics. Thanks for praying with us about this ministry.

Join us every third Sunday after Sunday School and before Worship for “Third Sunday Treats”. Everyone is invited to share in this time of fellowship! If you would like to bake or make special treats please speak to Pastor Lori. There is also a signup sheet in the rear of the Sanctuary.

Bazaar & Filled Basket Auction

Thanks to everyone who participated in our 25th Annual Bazaar and Filled Basket Auction in any way. We had 108 baskets this year...a nice selection, with something for just about everyone. We had a nice variety of vendors and crafters for the bazaar...and a yummy selection for the bake sale! Thanks to your contributions, along with a steady stream of patrons, the Bazaar & Basket Auction was once again a success.

Angel Tree

Be on the lookout for the Angel Tree. This year the angels won't have specific items to purchase. Instead, they will have information where you can purchase items needed by The Kindness Project, which assists foster families. You can go on The Kindness Project website and purchase an item through Amazon Smile, or if you prefer, you can donate money to FUN Group, and we will purchase items on the Amazon list. Please try to make your purchases by mid-December.

Share the Warmth

This year instead of collecting clothing for Share the Warmth, we will be collecting items to warm someone from the inside. All items will be donated to support local food programs, such as the Zionsville Area Food Pantry and Grace Lutheran Church's Food Cupboard.

Beginning in December and through January we will be collecting the following items:

- Soup

News from the Windows Committee...

Congratulations congregation! The third annual matching gift challenge was a success. THANKS to four supportive members, this year's challenge was $4,000. THANKS to the generosity of the congregation an additional $4,186 was raised. The third and final phase of the windows restoration can now begin. A contract for restoration of the nativity window has been signed with Cumberland Glass and work will begin sometime in the spring. Take time to look over the poor condition of the nativity windows and then you will more fully appreciate their beauty after restoration!

The remaining two quilts are on display in the upper social hall. The asking price is $350 each or best offer. The holidays are coming and they would make great gifts for a special family member or friend. They will also be offered for sale during the bazaar and basket auction, so don't wait and miss this wonderful opportunity. All proceeds go to the windows fund. See Pastor Lori, Beth Massa or Ruth Stansfield.

2023 BUDGET

Enclosed is the draft of the 2023 budget which will be discussed and voted on at the congregational meeting on Dec 4 .

Background:

- As you will see, we budgeted to be at a deficit and have exceeded it for 2022.
- (not included on the spreadsheet) The 2021 budget was for a ~$12,000 deficit which was covered by the PPP payroll programs during the pandemic.
- A similar shortfall was planned for 2022 with hopes that income would improve. Income declined while we continued to be frugal with our spending.

2023

- The budget looks even worse.
- We have removed any equipment purchases in the capital budget and asked that property only use the $5000 line item for things that cannot be deferred.
- Increases of 2% or less have been included for staff. This is below conference guidance.
- Utilities have been increased in anticipation of further rate hikes.
- We need to look at sources of income. Please come prepared to discuss
