A Prayer of Reflection on the Last Words of Christ

We have a fascination with the final words of the dying. With Jesus' last words we are not disappointed. Resounding through the ages in the Word of God, they stand perfect and complete. As we focus on those words, we look for a window to eternity, and in the process find a spotlight on our own soul.

"Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing" (Luke 23:34). Lord, I hold on to a grudge like it was a treasure, but it rots my soul. Help me to let go of what I can't control and learn to forgive.

"I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:43). Like the thief to whom You promised eternal life, I believe in Your ability to save me. Help my unbelief.

"He said to his mother, 'Dear woman, here is your son,' and to his disciple, 'Here is your mother'" (John 19:26-27). When I hurt, I think only of myself. Give me an unselfish heart to see and care for others who are hurting.

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:46). It was for me that You were forsaken. Help me to let go of the unanswered "whys?" in my life and to find peace in knowing that You are my God.

"I am thirsty" (John 19:28). Give me an unquenchable thirst to know You, my Lord.

"It is finished" (John 19:30). I can never add to what you have done for me. My salvation is complete. Help me to know the joy of Your grace as I serve You.

"Father, into your hands I commit my spirit" (Luke 23:46). I want to surrender everything in my life to You. Teach me what that means for each new day, and give me the will to do what I know I need to do. Amen.

Father, May the joy of Easter be ours every day. Fill us with a sense of adventure as we face the challenges of this world in the light of eternity. Help us to keep our eyes on Jesus and the victory we have through faith in Him. In the name of the One who conquered even death, Jesus. Amen.

Peace,
Lori

News from Cemetery...

Spring is here! Please remove any Christmas/winter decorations.

News from Christian Ed...

Egg Hunt on Easter morning will start at 9:30 a.m. in the lower social hall. All Children are Welcome for the Egg Hunt which is for infants through 5th grade. We will have two age groups hunting separately so all can enjoy the hunting.

Sunday School is open to all children who would like to participate. Children can start at the age of two or when they are potty trained. Classes are held in the lower level of the church. If you have other questions about Sunday School, please speak with Pastor Lori, Susan Jacobs, Patti Mittl and Deb Schoenberger.

We are always looking for more help in the Sunday School. This is an important ministry of our church. If you are feeling called to help out, please let Pastor Lori know and we will tell you more of the specifics. Thanks for praying with us about this ministry.

The last day for Sunday School this Spring will be June 4. The children will be singing in Worship that day. Please plan to be in Worship to support them. Classes will resume in September. And there is always room for more teachers and more helpers!

Join us every third Sunday after Sunday School and before Worship for "Third Sunday Treats". Everyone is invited to share in this time of fellowship! We are always looking for bakers for Third Sunday Treats. Please speak with Pastor Lori to arrange a date to offer treats. Thanks!

It's Time for Zero Hunger

Food sustains life. Responding to hunger is an affirmation of life. The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, "The time is always right to do what is right." Ending hunger is always the right thing to do. What does ending hunger in West Timor, Indonesia look like?—the Timor Zero Hunger program. With your support, CWS has been working with the Oe Ekam community in West Timor since 2018, where there are now five farmers groups. Dominggus is the leader of the Tosilo Toselo farmers group. "In the past, each family was only able to plant Chinese cabbage, tomatoes, and chili on about 100 square meters (2% of an acre) of land per family," says Dominggus. After feeding their families, some community members were able to generate a small surplus and sell it in the local market, earning around $3.50-$7.00 each time they sold produce. Before the Timor Zero Hunger program, the dry season made it difficult for the people of Oe Ekam to harvest crops year-round because they could only plant vegetables during the short rainy season from December to March. "The Timor Zero Hunger program has been a life changing experience for members," says Dominggus. "We were able to expand our farmland to about 2.5 acres. We were also able to diversify: now we harvest white mustards, cabbage, kale, green beans, bitter melons, tomatoes, chilies, zucchinis, cucumbers and papayas. Over the past two years we have been able to harvest much more and eat vegetables every day. Once or twice in a week we sell our crops in the local market in the district capital. On average our members make $17.50–$52.50 for each harvest. Now we can harvest 3 to 4 times in a year,” he added. The Timor Zero Hunger program has trained farmer groups on how to make organic liquid fertilizer and how to ward off pests and disease. With CWS support, the Tosilo Toselo group also built a cistern and installed a pipe that is over half a mile long to bring more water from a spring directly to their land. The program also taught them about the benefits of drip irrigation, and they have built a drip irrigation system for themselves. All of this would not have been possible without your gifts through One Great Hour of Sharing, which support programs that address the root causes of food insecurity, bringing real and sustainable change to communities like Oe Ekam. Dominggus shares his gratitude for your generosity and the Timor Zero Hunger program: “Thank you, CWS. This program has changed the life of all our members.” The need has never been greater. The opportunity is now. It’s time to share. “So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up...” Galatians 6:9

Services at Old Zionsville UCC for Holy Week are as follows:

Don't miss Sunday, April 16 at 10:15 a.m.! This is Holy Humor Sunday plus we are inviting you to dress down and be casual in your attire on that day. Holy Humor Sunday has roots in history a long time ago. For centuries, the days after Easter were observed by the faithful as "days of joy and laughter" with gatherings of storytelling, joke swapping, picnics and parties to celebrate Jesus' resurrection. It begins with the idea that God played the ultimate practical joke on the devil by raising Jesus from the dead. Easter was "God's supreme joke played on death." So come to worship, dress down/casual, get a FREE Kazoo and bring your sense of humor as we celebrate the miracle of the Resurrection.

We Got Mail!

From Diane and The Rev. David Schnaars

(the letter was addressed to me and added some encouragement to me personally which I greatly appreciated. I have edited the letter to share with you their thoughts on their visit with our church family on this date.)

3/12/23

Dear Old Zionsville UCC Friends,

Dave and I were delighted to worship with you this morning. One of Dave's former confirmands found a few minutes to talk with him. She said they were kids years ago in confirmation class and now they're the ones having kids! How time flies.

We spent some time after the service talking to some old and dear friends. A few we still keep in touch with through Christmas cards or letters but others we haven't seen since some special event years ago where there was a dinner.

As we church-hop during this time Dave is in between congregations, today's visit to OZUCC will remain one of the highlights.

God Bless You All, now and always.

Love, Dave and Diane
