Third Sunday of Advent
Son of Mary

Gathering

Like the iconic figures gathered around the Christ Child in our nativity scenes, we gather together because we want to know Jesus more as we seek to bring his Reign of Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love on earth.

(Today you have been given a sticky note on your bulletin. You will use this during the prayer time to write a word or phrase to give to Baby Jesus as a wish or joyful desire for the world.)

Prelude: "Thou Didst Leave Thy Throne" (Matthews)

Welcome and Announcements

Lighting of the Altar Candles

We Gather at the Scene

Leader: This week in our Advent series of asking and answering the complex question "What Child IS This?", we encounter another description of the Christ Child that will tell us much more about who he was destined to be.

Sung: Page 281

What Child is this, who, laid to rest,

On Mary's lap is sleeping?

Whom angels greet with anthems sweet,

While shepherds watch are keeping?

Lighting of the Advent Wreath: Millie Kohler, Caroline French, Deb
Schoenberger and Matthew Yenser:
Confirmants and their mentors

Leader: We often hear Jesus referred to as the "Son of God" and the "Son of Man." But this carol points out his identity over and over as the "Son of Mary." This equally powerful description points to his being reared by a woman who, upon hearing she would bear a child, said "yes" to one of the most difficult and precarious situations she could face. And then she sings with joy a song of justice for the ages. She goes on to guide and help form this child who would tend to the suffering ones.

Reader 1: We light this candle of Joy for those who need it most.

Reader 2: For all whose despair feels endless.

Reader 1: For all who find little joy in daily living.

Reader 2: For all whose disappointment runs deep.

Reader 1: Our question for today at the scene of the nativity is this: "How can we proclaim a deep joy "in spite of" hardship in our time?"

Reader 2: What child IS this? This, this, is the Son of Blessed Mary who reigns with joy forever.

Sung:

Page 281

This, this is Christ, the King,
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing:
Haste, haste to bring Him laud,
The Babe, the Son of Mary!

Prayer of Invocation (unison)

Here, at the nativity of your birth,
give us the courage to face this moment
with an uncanny joy.
Open us to new understandings of the unfolding story of your presence among us.
Show us how to praise you even when songs and carols feel empty.
We pray in the name of the Child,
the One Who Uplifts our hearts and lives.
Amen.

Bring Him Laud

Proclaiming

We all have witnessed people who "rise to the occasion," who bring energy and commitment, even and especially in the midst of the most unsettling times. From the book, The First Advent in Palestine, we read: "...without a doubt, [Mary] experienced the push and pull of war and resistance that shaped the villages of Galilee." The situation for women in the time of Jesus' birth was more difficult than we might imagine. In the scripture today, we hear that Mary will be perceived as an unwed mother, something that could have ruined her future forever. But she believes in the mission that God is laying out for her, and her role in it. Hear now this remarkable account:

We Hear the Story                      Luke 1: 26-56

Reflection

Responding

Our faithful response is to praise God for this story of Emmanuel, God-With-Us, even and especially in the midst of difficulty, for God is indeed with us even still.

"We Keep Watch" – Prayers

"Great Holy One"

Brian Wren and Susan Heafield

Sung by congregation and choir:

Great, Holy One, spreading time and space,
show us who You are in a human face.

Leader: In this moment of silent contemplation, we lift up our prayers for the world, for its people, for the kind of kin-dom embodied by the child who was son of a strong and wise woman. [You have a sticky-note and we invite you to write a word or phrase of joyful desire for the world that we can give to baby Jesus.)

Time of Silent Contemplation

Spoken in Unison:

Living one, how will you lead us?

"Not by scheming or by stealth, not with glamor, power and wealth, but through Jesus, teacher, healer,
In a manger born, [joy] on Christmas morn."

Sung by congregation and/or choir:

Great, Holy One, spreading time and space,
show us who You are in a human face.

Pastoral Prayer

Be with us as we seek to be the Body of Christ in the world.

We pray this in the way you taught us, saying...

*The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen

Sung by congregation and choir:

Great, Holy One, spreading time and space,

show us who You are in a human face.

"So Bring Him..."

(Offering)

What gifts are adequate for the Son of Mary, the Bringer of Joy? Our theme song says, "so bring him incense, gold, and myrrh; come peasant, king, to own him." Whether what we have to give is simply the gift of our presence and gratitude, or if we are privileged with coffers of precious resources, we give what we can. In this way we "take ownership" of our role in the scene, in the unfolding story of Joy. (please place your completed sticky notes in the offering plate.)

Offertory: "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear"

(Willis)

*Presentation of our Gifts and The Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;

Praise Him, all creatures here below;

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Blessing of our Gifts

Choir Anthem

Sending Forth

Just as our theme carol asks, "what child is this?" we, too, have come with our questions this day. We go into the world with answers of Good News, being the Body of Christ through our words and deeds.

We Ask, We Answer

As we prepare to go into the world,
let us ask and answer the question we came with.

What child IS this?

This is the one born into a time when unbridled joy was squelched by those in power.

What child IS this?

This is the one whose birth would stir the world from slumber and challenge us to know joy that comes from right relationships.

What child IS this?

This, this is the "Son of Mary"
who shows us the song of life that is ours when we stand up for the least.

*Closing Hymn: "O for a World"

(see insert)

Benediction

May the Womb of Life,
the Child of Joy,
the Spirit of Resistance to Injustice

be with you now and as you go.

All: Amen.

Sung Response:

Page 281

This, this is Christ, the King,
Whom shepherds guard and angels sing:
Haste, haste to bring Him laud,
The Babe, the Son of Mary!

*Extinguishing of the Candles

Postlude: "Shout the Glad Tidings"
